Bruce Recher

Attorney, Of Counsel

SERVICES

With more than 45 years of experience, I bring sound judgment and a practical approach to help businesses and individuals navigate a wide range of disputes. My extensive background in litigation and business matters allows me to strategically analyze problems, evaluate options, and counsel clients on the best course of action.

I represent shareholders, partners, and companies in complex business disputes involving fraud, governance, minority shareholder issues, derivative actions, and fiduciary duty claims. My practice also includes advising employers and employees on sensitive workplace matters, as well as handling disputes related to terminations, discrimination, non-compete agreements, compensation, and compliance with the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA).

Over the course of my career, I have served as trial counsel or lead attorney in numerous cases, including class action litigation. My experience includes successfully prosecuting and defending securities fraud claims involving accounting firms, underwriters, issuers, officers, and directors. I have also represented brokers and investors in disputes, ensuring their interests are well protected.

I approach each case thoughtfully and practically, offering clients clear guidance from the outset. I believe in engaging clients in the process, fostering collaboration, and making decisions based on common sense and sound judgment. Whether you're facing a business conflict, an employment issue, or a securities matter, I work diligently to find solutions and achieve the best possible outcome.
