SERVICES

When clients seek family law services, they are often navigating emotional and uncertain transitions. My goal is to be a steady presence, providing calm and clarity whether I'm listening to their concerns, gathering critical facts, or preparing legal documents. With over a decade of family law experience, I assist with a wide range of matters, including dissolutions, custody, child support, orders for protection, adoptions, and more.

As part of Henson Efron's family law team, I work closely with clients, attorneys, and other professionals to ensure every detail is accounted for and every step is executed efficiently. My responsibilities include drafting pleadings, managing discovery, preparing financial analyses, and supporting case preparation for mediation, settlement conferences, and trials. I also assist with property division analyses, social evaluations, and financial valuations, ensuring all aspects of a case are handled with care and precision.

My approach is rooted in empathy, organization, and proactive problem-solving. I take pride in being an active, non-judgmental listener for our clients and a reliable partner for our attorneys. Together, we work to achieve results that align with each client's goals and provide a sense of direction during challenging times.
