Michelle Swenson

Paralegal

With over 20 years of experience in family law, I am dedicated to providing clients with compassionate and dependable support. My role involves assisting attorneys and clients in all phases of family law matters, including marriage dissolution, child custody, paternity, and more. I focus on making challenging processes more manageable by bringing organization and a calm, practical approach to each case.

As part of Henson Efron’s family law team, my responsibilities include drafting motions, affidavits, and other pleadings; managing discovery preparation and review; and preparing detailed financial analyses, such as income, budgets, and property division spreadsheets. I also assist with mediation preparation, business and asset valuations, and coordinating with experts for custody and psychological evaluations. Additionally, I handle trial and appeal preparation, ensuring all aspects of a case are managed thoroughly and efficiently.

I am passionate about treating clients with respect and providing non-judgmental support throughout their legal journey. By fostering trust and maintaining attention to detail, I help clients feel informed and supported as they navigate significant life transitions.
